Robin Bogh-Henrikssen

Lettings Negotiator

Summary

Born in west London, Robin has always worked in the area and possesses extensive local knowledge as a result. He started out working at the reception of a private members hotel in Chelsea before beginning his property career in Chiswick, where he first mastered the field through on-the-job training and attending various ARLA training courses. After three years, he moved to Harrods Estates and has been in charge of lettings in the Mayfair office for the past five years.

Robin has considerable knowledge of the rental process from start to finish. He is responsible for overseeing all the day to day activities of the letting department in Mayfair. In his spare time, Robin enjoys travelling as well as skiing and sailing.

Experience

- Both reached and exceeded annual targets and is on course to exceed this year's quota.
- Represented the company at a conference in Kazakhstan where we made many useful contacts – one of which has rented a penthouse we were marketing.
- Responsible for the letting of 5 super-prime (£5,000+ per week) property this year alone including one at £8,500pw
