Sarah McIntyre

Director of Lettings

Summary

Sarah started her career in the Lettings industry over twenty years ago with Hamptons International and quickly progressed through the ranks becoming a Senior Manager, responsible for three offices including the day to day running of their country flagship office. After eight very successful years, Sarah re-located to Central London covering the busy Chelsea and Kensington market and following a further two years with Hamptons she moved to Farrar & Co, a well-known agency concentrating in the prime central southwest London market.

Sarah joins Harrods Estates from this independent boutique agency which she successfully transformed and expanded the business by delivering excellent customer service along with her sheer hard work, enthusiasm and passion.

With her extensive knowledge of the residential lettings industry and her huge experience of the numerous market changes over the years, she will draw on all her impressive skills to ensure she offers the best advice and provides the highest level of service to all our clients.
