Robert Cox

Sales Negotiator

Summary

Robert has worked in the property industry since 2005 and with over seven years in prime central London he has accrued extensive property expertise and knowledge of the Mayfair and St James's market in particular. As well as overseeing the office, Robert focuses on the sale and purchase of prime residential property. During his years with Harrods Estates, Robert has built a reputation as a trusted advisor to many loyal clients, both locally and across the globe.

Away from the office Robert enjoys an active life, regularly playing squash and rugby and is a member of The Woodford Wells Club and Woodford RFC.

Experience

- Sales in One Hyde Park achieving in excess of £6,400 per square foot
- Achieving record sales in 55 Park Lane both in terms of overall price and £ per square foot.
- Instrumental in the continued success the office has experienced in The Lancasters, London's most prestigious development north of Hyde Park.
- Experienced in dealing discreetly with HNWIs specifically from the Middle East, West Africa, North and East Europe as well as Russia.
